Marvel by Design

Enjoy a moderated discussion of comic book culture’s influence across editorial, film, graphic design and storytelling-at-large. Marvel by Design celebrates 80 plus years of the company’s visual language, design process, featuring reflections by some of the industry’s biggest illustrators.

Join Liz Stinson, editor of the newly released design retrospective for a panel featuring Marvel comic’s most renowned artists and graphic designers. This gathering prompts an in-depth exploration of the process and strategies that built the brand’s iconic graphical elements spanning all forms of media. The discussion will be hosted on Zoom.

Panelists:
Mike Essl, Associate Professor of Graphic Design, The Cooper Union

Chris Eliopoulos, Writer, Letterer of Marvel comics, Illustrator of Franklin Richards: Son of a Genius and the Pet Avengers.

Paul Sahre, Graphic Designer since 1997

Liz Stinson, Writer, Editor of AIGA Eye on Design, credits in Fast Company, Wired, Curbed

Online. 27 January 2022, 6:30–8:30 PM

Registration required.

https://www.shillingtoneducation.com/blog/marvel-by-design/