Today’s Dealmaster is headlined by an Amazon Gold Box sale on a variety of board games. While we can’t vouch for everything on sale, we have recommended a handful of the discounted games in the past.

Perhaps the most notable deal is Kingdomino for $14, which is the cheapest we’ve seen it on Amazon since a brief drop to $12 last holiday season. Kingdomino won the 2017 Spiel des Jahres—the most prestigious award in board gaming—and has made it onto our ultimate board game gift guide the past few years for being a smooth and quick-playing tile-laying game that should work for both adults and kids, regardless of experience level. Elsewhere, Carpe Diem is an accessible but thinky tile-drafting and placement game we like that is down to its lowest price since January. Planet and Ecos: The First Continent, meanwhile, are another two games we've praised before; both are down to their lowest prices to date.

If you don't need a new game to play, though, we also have deals on Nintendo's Switch Pro Controller, a top slim Switch case, Lenovo's ThinkPad X1 Carbon, and more. You can check out the full list for yourself below.
