ADWEEK Launches Inaugural Team Visionary Awards

In this industry, awards often celebrate individuals and the work that they do. But building an iconic brand, developing a groundbreaking campaign, and tackling a difficult business challenge are all team efforts.

That's why ADWEEK is introducing the Team Visionary Awards, designed to highlight and celebrate the collective efforts behind the industry's biggest achievements.

We're looking for teams that have a unique approach to marketing and working together to create lasting connections with global audiences.

Entrants can apply across nine categories, and one winner will be selected per category.

1. In-House Brand Team
2. Agency Leadership Team

3. Agency Client Team
4. Tech Team
5. Creative Team
6. Social Media/Influencer Team
7. Experiential Team
8. Newcomers (for companies established within the last 3 years)
9. Media Team

The final list will be judged by a group of ADWEEK editors and the winners will be revealed in the October print issue of ADWEEK and on adweek.com.

Apply using the form below by the deadline of July 8.
