Role Details

Anjunabeats/Anjunadeep (Involved Productions)
Art Department Internship (London)

Home to Above & Beyond, Dusky, Yotto, Andrew Bayer, Lane 8, Seven Lions, Anjunabeats & Anjunadeep are two of the world's leading independent electronic record labels. Under the umbrella of Involved Group, our offices in London and Los Angeles are also home to Involved Management and Involved Publishing.

We are looking for a highly motivated, music-loving designer to join us at our offices in Bermondsey Street for a three month, full-time, paid internship.

You will receive exposure to all aspects of the electronic music business. Embedded within our art department team, you'll work on album artwork, billboards, event artwork, merchandise and more.

A passion for all things 'electronic music' is a must.

In your application, please feel free to include links to any creative projects you may be involved in, even if they're outside the specific remit of the above position. Are you a musician? Let us know! Do you love photography, animation, painting? We'd love to see it.

How to apply:
Please send your application to jobs@anjunabeats.com, subject 'Anjuna Art Department Internship', with a cover letter and CV, by midnight on January 14.

The internship will run from the middle of January until April (dates to be discussed).

Note:
This is a paid internship, salary on application. All applicants must have the right to live and work in the United Kingdom. Unfortunately we are unable to sponsor non-EU citizens for this position. Please be aware that internships often do not result in an offer of full time contract employment.
