With the Seido Japanese Master Chef's Eight-Piece Knife Set, you can score a set of knives worthy of great chefs without the usual high price tag that typically accompanies premium knives. Made from strong high-carbon stainless steel, these knives strike a great balance between durability and sharp edge retention.

Seido Japanese knives come with an acute 15-degree angle that offers a sharp cutting face, unlike Western-style knives that offer a 25-degree angle. And their sloped bolster provides more comfort and control as you work in the kitchen.

Here's what's included in each set, organized perfectly in an included gift box:

- Eight-inch chef's knife
- Eight-inch slicing knife
- Eight-inch bread knife
- Seven-inch cleaver
- Seven-inch Santoku knife
- Five-inch Santoku knife
- Six-inch boning knife
- Three-and-a-half-inch paring knife

Score a Seido Japanese Master Chef's Eight-Piece Knife Set with a gift box, plus get another one for free to gift to a friend or family member for just $139.99 (reg. $429) during our version of Prime Day.

Prices subject to change.
