Cécile + Roger

Shillington students from around the world share the work of creatives who inspire them in the #ILoveTheseGuys series. In this post, Sydney student Christine Orchard highlights projects from Geneva-based studio Cécile + Roger.

Discovering Cécile + Roger graphic design studio was exciting to find. They are a partnership based in Switzerland, Geneva and produce vibrant and clean modern art like designs. Their studio creates visual communications for the cultural, institutional and private sectors. The strong bold colour designs are primarily what I noticed about their consistent feel. The creative play of imagery and type design in addition to illustration and editorial design is striking and contemporary which engages you with every page they create. Loads of balance with tension and nowhere to hide imagery conveys a fun and confident visual communication style.
