Junior-mid level designer. Full time & freelance positions open. Working remote is possible. Looking for graphic designers who love to work in branding and visual identity systems, who can make presentation decks look amazing, comp hard working assets for advertising, and are open to learning new things.

Role Details

You are a damn good designer. You have dreams about ligatures. You are easily soothed by a tidy grid system. You view things from a highly visual perspective and understand that great design can change the world. You are endlessly curious and know that you always have more to learn.

Skill/Attributes Required

Branding / visual identity
Layouts and presentations
Photoshop/indesign/illustrator
An eagerness and sense of urgency
A willingness to learn and try new things
