Daily Blog

I’ll be posting (almost) daily here. WIPs, thoughts, discoveries, and all sorts of short content.
I’m fighting perfectionism and trying to share more of what I’m doing every day.

My Daily Blog is independent of my main blog, so it won’t “bury” my long articles. It’s very minimalistic and doesn’t include any superfluous feature.

I want this space to be clean and simple. Like an empty wall that I will fill little by little, day after day.
