David Goldblatt: Photographs 1948–2018

Photography lovers in Sydney won't want to miss this one! David Goldblatt: Photographs 1948–2018 Exhibition now on at the Museum of Contemporary Art.

David Goldblatt was internationally renowned for documenting South Africa's people and turbulent history with a quiet determination and unflinching sense of what is right and just, and what is not.

Capturing seven decades of his work, David Goldblatt: Photographs 1948–2018 features his compelling portrayal of the rise and dismantling of Apartheid. This Sydney-exclusive exhibition includes his striking key black-and-white and colour photographic series, as well as never-before-seen material from his personal archive.

This exhibition will be the largest retrospective of Goldblatt's work in the region and marks the photographer's final project before his death.

19 October 2018 – 3 March 2019
