While Thanksgiving is inevitably the highlight of the upcoming holiday weekend, for some, nothing beats the excitement of Black Friday and Cyber Monday. And it’s not just about deals on electronics anymore either. Everything is fair game in 2019 — which makes it a great time to bulk up our wardrobes and mix up our monotonous office uniforms.

Although Lululemon hasn’t officially announced their participation in Black Friday and Cyber Monday, they have some great items on sale in their typically limited sale section. We’ve combed through it all to help you take advantage of some great deals. And no, we’re not just talking about yoga pants (although we had to throw one favorite pair in there). These finds range from weekend wear to office wear, and keep you incredibly comfortable along the way.
