Former KSTP Met Wren Clair to Join Minneapolis NBC Station KARE

Wren Clair will join Minneapolis, Minnesota NBC affiliate KARE on May 19.

Clair left Minneapolis ABC affiliate KSTP suddenly in February after nearly seven years there. At the time, news director Kirk Varner confirmed she left the station, but gave no further details.

“We’re excited to have Wren join the team of talented meteorologists at KARE 11,” said Doug Wieder, KARE president and general manager. “Her expertise in weather forecasting and commitment to viewers aligns perfectly with our station’s mission.”

Clair joined KSTP in 2018 after working at stations in Wisconsin and Boston.
