

Free Webinar | April 2: How Business Retirement Plan Contributions Are Impacted With IRS Extensions

Mark J. Kohler and Matt Sorenson, Nationally respected Tax Lawyers, will dive deep into the impact IRS extensions have on your plans.

March 30, 2020 1 min read

Opinions expressed by Entrepreneur contributors are their own.

Small business owners, like yourself, are wondering how are your business retirement plan contributions are impacted with the IRS extensions? Join us on April 2 at 12PM EST to hear from Mark J. Kohler and Matt Sorenson, nationally respected tax lawyers, as they dive deep into the impact IRS extensions have on your plans and what you can do to help yourself.

During this webinar, Mark and Mat will cover:

- What are my options for taking distributions from my 401k?
- How much can I borrow from my 401k and what are the payback terms?
- When can I make contributions this year and how much?
- What retirement plan is best for my business?

Plus they will be fielding your questions!

Register Now

Hosted by Mark J. Kohler, CPA, attorney, co-host of the podcast Refresh Your Wealth, senior partner at the law firm of KKOS Lawyers and the accounting firm of K&E CPAs, and author of The Tax and Legal Playbook, 2nd Edition and The Business Owner's Guide to Financial Freedom. Mark will be joined by Mat Sorenson, CEO of Directed IRA, a partner at KKOS Lawyers, best-selling author and a self-directed retirement investor.

<https://www.entrepreneur.com/article/348461>