Hacker behind 2022 GTA VI leaks pleads guilty

Arion Kurtaj, a member of the Lapsus$ cybercrime group who leaked 90 videos of Grand Theft Auto VI in 2022 and hacked other big companies, pleaded guilty on Monday, according to the UK's Crown Prosecution Service (CPS).

Kurtaj, who is now 21, hacked BT/EE sometime between August and November 2021, and starting in early November of that year, the company "noted a marked increase in unauthorised SIM swaps of their customers mobile phones." He was charged for those offenses and moved to a hotel for his "own protection" in September 2022, but "breached his bail conditions to carry out further hacks on major companies using a mobile phone, the h …

Read the full story at The Verge.

https://www.theverge.com/games/1035087/gta-vi-leaks-2022-hacker-pleads-guilty-arion-kurtaj