

Help Your Business Save with a Costco Membership

Entrepreneurs are always looking for ways to cut costs. A great way to do that is with a Costco membership. Small businesses of just one to four employees spend an average of $77 to $92 per employee on office supplies (according to Toner Buzz). That's money that could be spent generating more business.

Costco's business model is based on selling items in bulk at wholesale prices. That can help cut costs across the board, as Costco Members can find essentials like office supplies, furniture, groceries, electronics, and more. Now through January 28, you can get a bonus digital Costco Shop Card* when you sign up for a one-year Costco Gold Star Membership or Costco Executive Gold Star Membership.

With both of these memberships, you'll get a free Household Card for someone older than 18 in your household to purchase products for your business, home, and family at over 500 locations across the country. You'll also have access to perks like the Costco Tire Center, Costco Gas Station, Costco Services*, and Costco Travel to lock in additional savings.

The Executive Gold Star Membership also provides members with the opportunity to earn an annual 2% reward (up to $1,000) on qualified purchases.

Start saving for your business in 2024.
