

Here are 25 of our favorite outdoorsy deals from REI's massive Holiday Sale

REI doesn't do Black Friday, but that doesn't mean you won't be able to save this holiday season. The outdoor retailer's annual Holiday Sale is now underway and runs through November 24th, offering up to 30 percent off gadgets and gear designed for the outdoors. Right now, you can save on Garmin watches, headlamps, sleeping pads, camp chairs, and Bluetooth speakers from brands like JBL, Yeti, and REI.

Below, we've rounded up some of the best deals you can shop, whether you're upgrading your kit or working through a wish list. In many cases, we've either tested or reviewed the products on sale, so you can shop with confidence for yourself or loved ones. Also, keep in mind that REI members receive special savings on outdoor gear, including 20 percent off one full-price item, plus 20 percent off one eligible item at an REI Outlet.
