How to Make More Money as a Designer

How do I price my work? How do I stand out? How do I find clients? These are all questions I also had when I first started out. Those topics and more are all covered in this new business-focused course on how to make more money as a designer. Listen to advice from 4 expert instructors who share their tips, experience and wisdom that helped them develop their thriving businesses and design agencies. This course is perfect for new freelancers, but there's plenty of useful info veteran designers can learn from too!

Gain access to a gold mine of information and guidance for common business challenges, including pricing, budgets, client communication and relationships, branding and so much more through 4 hours of practical lessons. As a launch special, this brand new course is discounted by over 60% from $99 to just $39.

This course is broken down into 4 main topics:

- Recession Proof Pricing & Payment Strategies For Designers (70 min)
- How To Retain & Generate More Work From Your Clients (80 min)
- How To Get More Design Clients Using Social Media (56 min)
- How To Stand Out & Win More Design Work (40 min)

See the full course overview and watch the teaser video get to know the four design business heavyweights who will guide you through each section: Chris Do, Mike Janda, Anneli Hansson and James Martin. There's no time limit for undertaking the course, you will have permanent access to the videos and resources to consume in your own time, so make the most of the intro discount while you can!

Buy the 'How To Make More Money As A Designer' Course for $39

https://blog.spoongraphics.co.uk/latest_news/how-to-make-more-money-as-a-designer