Jewish National Fund

Graphic Design Summer Intern

Internship
New York New York United States
http://www.jnf.org

New York City non-profit is currently seeking a creative Graphic Design Summer Intern to join our Art Department.

Role Details

As a Graphic Design Summer Intern, you will work on designing brand collateral both print and digital, building graphic elements and working directly with staff translating their ideas into strong campaigns and visual design.

• Graphic Design Summer Intern will work on designing brand collateral both print and digital, building graphic elements and working directly with staff translating their ideas into strong campaigns and visual design.
• Must have superior design sensibilities, typographic skills, knowledge of color, scale and layout and a working knowledge of the grid system.
• Should welcome multi-tasking, be energized (rather than deterred) by tight deadlines, and possess a dedicated team spirit.

Skill/Attributes Required

• Candidate should be fluent in all Adobe CC suite
• Powerpoint
• Typography
• Graphic Design

Extra Points If:
-You have some knowledge of animation and video editing

– You have HTML or CSS coding experience

Apply/Respond by: 01/05/2018

Send: CV/Resume

Send CV/Resume and portfolio or website to dmorris@jnf.org. Applicant’s portfolio should display a unique, sophisticated, cutting edge style and typographic expertise.

dmorris@jnf.org

https://www.shillingtoneducation.com/blog/jewish-national-fund-2/