Kelsey Kushner Moves from Baltimore to Philadelphia

Kelsey Kushner will join Philadelphia NBC owned station WCAU as a reporter on August 18. She will also fill-in for weekend news anchors Brenna Weick and Johnny Archer.

The Delaware native comes from Baltimore CBS owned station WJZ, where she spent the past six years as a weekend anchor and general assignment reporter covering breaking news, crime and community issues. Kushner was a general assignment reporter and fill-in anchor at WINK in Fort Myers, Florida before that.

“Kelsey has deep local ties and a passion for community journalism, and her unique perspective will help us continue to deliver meaningful and relevant stories to our viewers,” said Elizabeth Flores, vice president of News for NBC10 and Telemundo62. “We are pleased to welcome Kelsey to the NBC10 and Telemundo62 newsroom.”
