Luxury Family Escapes

Le Collectionist’s Easter Collection Redefines Spring Travel

As spring establishes itself as one of the most desirable moments to travel, Le Collectionist confirms a decisive shift in luxury tourism habits. Easter and the wider spring season are no longer a quiet interlude between winter and summer, but a prime period for families seeking privacy, space and bespoke experiences in some of Europe and North Africa’s most refined destinations.

According to the latest data from Le Collectionist, spring travel in 2025 has grown by 26% compared to 2024, now representing 11% of total annual stays. This rapid growth reflects a changing mindset among high-end travellers, who are increasingly prioritising mild weather, flexibility and crowd-free destinations. Demand is surging particularly in Ibiza(+57%), Marrakech (+143%) and Comporta (+54%), driven largely by American, French and British guests booking an average stay of seven nights.

At the heart of this growth is Le Collectionist’s Easter Collection, a curated portfolio of family-friendly luxury villas designed to elevate spring holidays into truly memorable escapes. These private homes combine architectural excellence, generous capacity and resort-level amenities, while maintaining the intimacy and exclusivity that define the brand.

Among the standout properties is Villa Clarence in Ibiza, an expansive retreat that can accommodate up to 18 guests. Designed for multigenerational stays, the villa features a private cinema room, massage and wellness areas, a paddle court and full spa facilities—making it as appealing for adults seeking relaxation as it is for children craving entertainment.

In Portugal, Harmonia da Comporta embodies understated luxury and natural elegance. Hosting up to 16 guests across nine bedrooms, the villa is immersed in Comporta's serene landscape, offering a slower, more contemplative rhythm of travel that has become increasingly attractive to families escaping urban routines.

Further south, in Morocco, Villa A&N in Marrakech stands out for its architectural pedigree. Designed by the acclaimed Studio KO, the property accommodates up to 20 guests and sits at the foothills of the Atlas Mountains. Its minimalist lines, earthy tones and open spaces create a refined yet deeply relaxing environment, ideal for extended family gatherings during Easter and spring breaks.

Beyond the villas themselves, Le Collectionist's defining strength lies in its highly personalised concierge service. From private chefs and trusted childcare to cultural excursions and tailor-made activities, every detail is curated to ensure comfort, entertainment and peace of mind. This holistic approach transforms a luxury villa stay into a fully orchestrated experience, perfectly adapted to the needs of families.

As spring continues to gain momentum as a luxury travel season, Le Collectionist's Easter Collection positions itself at the intersection of exclusivity, flexibility and experiential travel—offering families not just a holiday, but a refined way of spending time together.

About villas:

Villa Clarence is a secluded sanctuary nestled in the tranquil hills of Ibiza, enveloped by acres of lush, private land. Rooted in a 300-year-old Ibicencan farmstead, it's a hidden paradise where nature and tranquillity guide every detail—a true ode to slow living and timeless charm.

18 guests·9 bedrooms·9 bathrooms·546 sqm

Key features include: Swimming pool, sauna, movie room, massage room, paddle court

Villa Harmonia Da Comporta

16 guests·9 bedrooms·8 bathrooms·700 sqm

In the wild and unspoilt Comporta, Villa Harmonia da Comporta stands like a luxurious beach house on the golden sand, without any neighbors around. With thatched roofs and wooden slats, the exterior embodies a relaxed seaside vibe hyper private, while the interior blends natural materials with modern touches within white walls, creating an airy and bright atmosphere perfect for your family beach holidays.

https://www.positive-magazine.com/luxury-family-easter-villas/?utm_source=rss&utm_medium=rss&utm_campaign=luxury-family-easter-villas