Role Details

MA Exhibitions Design Assistant
Freelance
Paid – £90 / day
Herne Hill, London / Remote

We are looking for a Student / Junior Graphic Designer to work on a freelance basis supporting the marketing team across various exhibition and conference marketing projects. You can see our event portfolio here – http://www.markallengroup.com/ma-exhibitions/

The work will include:

• Creating social media content promoting speakers, sponsors and sessions
• Creating suites of online display ads
• Making PDF brochure updates

There’s also the potential for video editing for social media campaigns.

Initially the role will be 3 x 8-hour days / week, with scope to increase or decrease depending on our requirements. We can be flexible on which days these are.

We would require you to come into the office at least once a week to start with.

You will need access to your own computer and design software.

About us

MA Exhibitions is the events arm and fasting growing division of the Mark Allen Group; an ambitious and family owned media company based in leafy Herne Hill. The head office itself is in a converted church, backing onto one of South London’s gems, Brockwell Park. We’re nicely situated between Herne Hill and Brixton stations, with plenty of bus routes servicing the surrounding areas.

Skill/Attributes Required

Photoshop – must have Video editing – nice to have
