Miguel Reyes: Variation on a Theme

11 April 2019
New York

At this Type Directors Club event, Mexican type designer and letterer Miguel Reyes of Commercial Type will be discussing the ideas and process behind the condensed display family that he was commissioned to create for the fashion magazine, W. The intention of the typeface is to “accentuate the magazine’s provocative photography and cutting edge fashion.” For a glimpse of the typeface, check out the preview here. To learn more about Miguel’s typographic work, read this interview on TypeThursday to hear the story behind his typeface Canela.
