Multiplicity

2 May 2019
London

Hear from some of the biggest, most interesting designers, studios and agencies in the game at Multiplicity London.

Multiplicity London brings together a great line-up of speakers under the same roof for one night only. Hosted by Foilco, the event is part of the Multiplicity series which have taken place in various cities across the UK. All proceeds will go to a local charity. Multiplicity’s chosen charity is SHP/ Single Homeless Project.

The speakers include Verònica Fuerte, founder and creative director of Barcelona’s Hey Studio, Paul Belford, founder and creative director of Paul Belford Ltd, Thomas Humeau and George Wu from Mother London and Rich Banks, founder and creative director of Face37.

Food and drink will be provided by Good Things Brewing Co., Portobello Road Gin and The Proper Pie Co.

Tickets are first come, first serve so don’t miss out—book yourself a place now!

https://www.shillingtoneducation.com/blog/multiplicity/