Nearly 50 Million Facebook Accounts Affected by Massive Security Breach

A security breach at Facebook has affected nearly 50 million of the social media platform’s users, Facebook said Friday. Facebook discovered the breach on Tuesday, informed law enforcement on Thursday and is cooperating with the FBI, Facebook vice president of product management Guy Rosen told reporters on a call Friday afternoon. The company has also… https://www.adweek.com/digital/nearly-50-million-facebook-accounts-affected-by-massive-security-breach/
