No-Paint-Allowed Office Makeover

Office Goals on the Road is ending its first season close to home! Kate and Joey have worked with Abrams Artist Agency for years, and now they get to make their mark in a unique way by working on two personal offices and the company green room! With the plot twist of a “no paint allowed” rule, they incorporate DIYs, modern office furniture, and personalized details to transform each of these three spaces into individual – and majorly impressive – office spaces!
