(NY) Being: New Photography 2018

Since 1985, the “New Photography” series has been exhibited at MOMA every two years, introducing new work from over 100 artists globally. This year, 17 artists explore the theme of “Being”—how individuals are depicted and perceived in society.

Learn more about the exhibition and related events

On view through 19 August 2018.

https://www.shillingtoneducation.com/blog/ny-new-photography-2018/