(NY) Power In Print Exhibition

The New York Public Library is currently hosting an enlightening exhibition exploring the art of the Black Power movement poster, showcasing a variety of aesthetics, styles, and messaging strategies. Showcasing the era of 1960’s–70’s the posters focused on key figures including Malcolm X, Angela Davis, and Marcus Garvey. From stripped back clear messaging to patterned colourful displays each poster has its own voice. One not to miss!

Find out more!
Exhibition runs until 31 March 3018.