(NY) Type Design with Matteo Bologna

Matteo Bologna is the principal and CD of the New York design studio, Mucca Design and the principal of the new Mucca spin-off type foundry muccaTypo. He frequently lectures about branding and typography around the world, and this is an incredible opportunity to take a crash course in designing type! In this 6 hour workshop, you will learn the basic skills necessary to create your own typefaces—from designing and generating a typeface to drawing and generating the font. At the end of the class, you will have your own finished font!
