NYCxDESIGN Festival

11–18 November 2021
New York

NYCxDESIGN presents their 9th Annual Festival celebrating the immensely talented designers of New York City.

NYCxDESIGN, formerly an initiative now non-profit, direct resources to foster growth in different communities: Taking Action [through design], Unifying and Brooklyn. The festival includes three trade fairs, new product releases, exhibitions, talent showcases and programming sprinkled across the five boroughs.

After last year’s hiatus, the organizers are thrilled by a renewed focus towards equity, access and inclusion—detailed in a full guide and through curated itineraries to assist in showcasing all of the creativity on display. Accompanying the guide, you will find interactive QR codes and podcasts to complement the storytelling of the city’s makers—manufacturers. The festival website hosts the RSVP for live studio visits spanning letterpress, lighting, welding, furniture production and more!

Online and In-person. 8:00 am—9:00 pm EST

Events range from $0 to $75 (entrance fee to trade shows). Dive into design and plan your journey today!
