

OpenAI's News Corp deal licenses content from WSJ, New York Post, and more

OpenAI has struck a deal with News Corp, the media company that owns The Wall Street Journal, the New York Post, The Daily Telegraph, and others. As reported by The Wall Street Journal, OpenAI's deal with News Corp could be worth over $250 million in the next five years "in the form of cash and credits for use of OpenAI technology."

The multi-year agreement gives OpenAI access to current and archived articles from News Corp publications for AI training and to answer user questions.

The partnership also includes outlets like Barron's, MarketWatch, Investor's Business Daily, FN, The Sunday Times, The Sun, and The Australian, among others, and News Corp will "share journalistic expertise" with OpenAI to "ensure the highest journalism standards."
