Rewatch the 2021 Women Trailblazers Summit

Each year, Adweek invites female founders and leaders from the media, technology and marketing spaces to discuss the state of equality and the power of female leadership at our Women Trailblazers summit. This year’s event was held virtually on July 14, featuring notable speakers such as The Female Quotient’s Shelley Zalis, Wheels Up’s Stephanie Chung, and actress and entrepreneur Tracee Ellis Ross, who was featured on the cover of Adweek’s Women Trailblazers issue.
