

Several Warner Bros. Discovery TV Execs Are Out Amid Restructuring

Warner Bros. Discovery is making big changes to its U.S. Networks leadership.

On Friday, news broke that several major execs are exiting the company amid an ongoing restructuring.

Those leaving include Jane Latman, HGTV and Food Network home and food content president; Nancy Daniels, who was in charge of Turner channels and Discovery channels; Matthew Butler, group svp of Travel Channel; and Scott Lewers, who oversees franchise series expansions and tentpole programming at the Discovery and Turner channels.
