Special Group US Ramps Up With 17 New Hires

Eight months since landing in the U.S., Australian and New Zealand independent agency Special Group is rapidly expanding in the Americas with 17 new hires over the past few months. Notably, these mostly organic arrivals are largely talent leaving large holding companies in favor of smaller, more family-like shops.

Recommended articles
https://www.adweek.com/agencies/special-group-us-ramps-up-with-17-new-hires/