Design brand identities for fashion startups.

Role Details

Stateless builds apparel companies. We have a team of talented fashion designers and production managers that help create amazing product lines for a wide variety of clients. We also help these companies develop an equally crucial piece of any successful fashion company – their brand identities, which is where you come in. We need creative graphic designers to help design memorable logos, visual systems, and other core assets needed for launch. Stateless is an amazing place to experiment and grow as a designer. This opportunity will start out with one project, and can lead to a steady stream of freelance work.

Skill/Attributes Required

We care most about the creativity in your portfolio, fluency in Adobe Creative Suite, and ability to meet deadlines.

Ideally you are based in NYC. You can work remotely the majority of the time, but we would definitely prefer the option to have you come into our office in Tribeca on occasion.
