

The Black Friday sales on the games we actually loved this year

Black Friday is the best time of the year for the gaming fans who've felt like they didn't have the budget or the time to pick up every new hit title on release day. I find myself in that category, as someone who played Insomniac's excellent Spider-Man a year late (currently on Black Friday sale for $14.99 at Best Buy) and still has quite a few 2019 game of the year contenders sitting in my backlog.

Thankfully, this weekend is the time of the year when you can pull together between $50 and $100 and pick up a truly great collection of four or five games on the cheap.

While Black Friday is a great time to pick up old games for as little as the cost of a Fortnite battle pass (please play Bloodborne and God of War if you haven't already, they're currently $10 each), it's also a good opportunity to pick up some of the year's newest releases at a heavy discount. Sometimes, you can find a game that is just a few months old for up to 50 percent off.

We've compiled a list of some of the year's top reviewed titles that are on sale through the weekend for Black Friday, many of which just so happen to be on our own Best Games of 2019 list. You can't go wrong with any of these purchases.
