The ‘Decentralized Web’ Gets a Shot in the Arm From Tim Berners-Lee’s New Platform, Solid

The gauntlet has been thrown. The same day Facebook announced its latest breach, computer scientist Tim Berners-Lee, who is best known as the inventor of the World Wide Web, announced his latest venture, Solid, an open-source platform built to decentralize the web. As it stands, the web runs like an app on the internet to… https://www.adweek.com/digital/the-decentralized-web-gets-a-shot-in-the-arm-from-tim-berners-lees-new-platform-solid/
