As an entrepreneur, you likely have very little free time. If you don't want to spend it researching the stock market, but you still want to invest wisely, there's now an app for that. Sterling Stock Picker helps you put your money to work, offering AI-powered insights with award-winning stock picking software.

Right now, you can secure a lifetime subscription to Sterling Stock Picker for just $55.19 (reg. $486) with code SAVE20 through November 2.

Invest like a pro without spending hours researching stocks

If you're totally new to the stock market, or simply don't have enough spare time to dig into the greatest picks these days, Sterling Stock Picker can be a great way to ensure you're investing your money wisely. It makes the process easier thanks to AI-powered features that help you make informed decisions.

Curious how it works? You'll take a five-minute questionnaire to figure out your risk tolerance and personal values. This allows Sterling Stock Picker to find the right stocks that are aligned with your personal values, investment preferences, and risk tolerance. You can then pick and choose your portfolio following its North Star rating system, which recommends when you should buy, sell, or hold.

If you'd rather be more hands-off, you can choose a Done-for-You Portfolio Builder that eliminates the guesswork, allowing the app to continuously recommend updates over time.

No matter your preference for portfolio building, you'll have access to Sterling Stock Picker's AI financial coach, Finley. Finley can help answer any questions you have about your portfolio, individual stocks, or the market in general.
