

TikTok Releases Global Transparency Report for Second Half of 2020

TikTok removed 89,132,938 videos worldwide in the second half of 2020 for violations of its community guidelines or terms of service, representing less than 1% of total videos uploaded, and 11,775,777 of those removals were in the U.S., the platform said in its latest global Transparency Report, released Wednesday.

Recommended articles

<https://www.adweek.com/media/tiktok-releases-global-transparency-report-for-second-half-of-2020/>