

(UK) Italian Graphic Design and Industry

Have you ever been drawn to certain graphic styles originating in different countries?

Well, the Italian Cultural Institute are introducing a series of encounters about the history of graphic design in Italy, in the 20th century.

The talks include:

Posters with Leonardo Sonnoli and George Hardie, on 13th February at 7pm.

Graphic Design and Industry with Carlo Vinti & Jeremy Aynsley on 13th March at 7pm.

Magazines with Giorgio Camuffo & Adrian Shaughnessy on 17th April at 6pm (keep an eye on the website, as this hasn't been posted yet).

The events are completely free, but please click on any of the links above to book a spot!

These talks will take place at Italian Cultural Institute in London.
