

(UK) Made in North Korea: Everyday Graphics from the DPRK

The House of Illustration in London's beautiful Kings Cross area is hosting a very exciting exhibition, the first ever exhibition of graphic design from North Korea. Expect to see hundreds of examples of design from North Korea from food packaging to comics. The exhibition is a display of Nicholas Bonner's collection—the foremost expert on North Korean graphic culture, tourism and film.

Find out more

Exhibition runs until 13th May 2018

<https://www.shillingtoneducation.com/blog/uk-made-north-korea-everyday-graphics-dprk/>