Every entrepreneur has to understand the numbers in his or her business. Data is one thing, but knowing how to effectively and responsibly manage the businesses' finances is even more important. Sure, you can hire an accountant, but if you're just starting out, that may not be a sustainable move. Try learning QuickBooks instead with The QuickBooks 2019 Master Class.

Whether you're running an individual enterprise, a 10-person company, or a multi-national corporation, it's worth learning QuickBooks. (Although you probably have people to do the day-to-day accounting at a multi-national corporation.) Businesses of all sizes use QuickBooks because it's perhaps the most comprehensive accounting program on the market. In the 7-hour QuickBooks 2019 Master Class, you'll learn how to create and access profit/loss statements and balance sheets, customize reports, and even manage your taxes from start to finish using QuickBooks' tools. Before you know it, you'll be able to make sense of financial reports, instantly create accurate bookkeeping documents, and much more using QuickBooks.

Get familiar with the world’s leading accounting software. The QuickBooks 2019 Master Class retails for $150 but it’s 87 percent off now at just $19.
