Video: Will This Electric Skateboard Solve the ‘Last Mile’ Commute?

Commuting in cities is hard. Delayed trains. Sick passengers. Police activities. Human beings packed together like sardines, smell included. And with “Infrastructure Week” becoming an internet joke for the crumbling and ineffectiveness of our highways, bridges and tunnels, and our current administration, tech companies are seeing an opportunity. Enter: the electric skateboard. On a pleasantly… https://www.adweek.com/digital/video-will-this-electric-skateboard-solve-the-last-mile-commute/
