Why Losing a Trusted Partner Can Make You a Better Businessperson

In this video with Entrepreneur Network partner Business Rockstars, Denise Hewett, co-founder of Scripted, talks about how hard work and a great support system got her to where she is today. Specifically, she speaks about how one inspiration — one person who understands your goals and objectives — can help shape your journey and spur you to do things you never intended.

Then, she explains how losing that person can actually help you in your business.
