YouTube Targets Mass-Produced Content in Monetization Update via @sejournal, @MattGSouthern

YouTube is updating its monetization policies to target mass-produced and repetitious content. Here’s you need to know.

- YouTube is updating monetization policies to target inauthentic content.
- This change will impact channels publishing mass-produced and repetitious videos.
- Violations could result in removal from the YouTube Partner Program.

https://www.searchenginejournal.com/youtube-targets-mass-produced-content-in-monetization-update/550337/